

Snappy Tomato Pizza in Fairfax Receives The Clean Kitchen Award from Hamilton County Public Health

Locally owned and operated Snappy Tomato Pizza in Fairfax received their award at the December 10th meeting of the Hamilton County Board of Health (HCBH) meeting.

This award is available only to the Top Food Service Operator / Retail Food Establishment licensed performers in facility sanitation and food safety education.

The following criteria must be met to achieve the Clean Kitchen Award:

1. Facility must have less than three violations in the previous two years.
2. Facility must have no critical or repeat violations in the previous two years.
3. Facility must meet one of the following food education criteria.
 - Two staff members must have a valid Level 1 Food Handler Certificate within the past two year period; or
 - One staff member must have a current ServSafe Certificate.
4. Facility must have two years of inspection data available.
5. Facility must have an application to HCPH office including documentation that they have met the food education criteria.

Local owners of Snappy Tomato Pizza in Fairfax, Gail & Matt Nickum receiving The Clean Kitchen award from the HCPH Board Members on December 10th, 2012.

Snappy Tomato Pizza Has been awarded The Clean Kitchen Award for the years 2012, 2013, and 2014